THE WATERS TROUBLED.—The New York annual conference of the Free Methodist Church, while begun in peace, did not close in ancient form and harmony yesterday. Like many good people who have preceded them in this world, they realized the fact that brethren do not always "dwell together in unity," and the Free Methodists are as likely to have just as others struggling toward another world. A sensation was sprung when James Gray, of Brooklyn, a prominent lay delegate, by whose decision Alexandria had been chosen as the meeting place of the conference this year, summarily withdrew from the conference and the membership of the Free Methodist Church.

In a dramatic manner he bade farewell to the former associates in religious work and left the church. The trouble commenced Thursday morning when Mr. Gray read several letters that had passed between himself and other members of the committee appointed to select a place for the meeting of the conference. In some of the letters grave charges were made affecting the reputation of Rev. Jacob T. Logan, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., another member of the committee. Yesterday the conference passed upon his character, and at once voted against him. Bishop Coleman then ruled that the papers in the matter should be given into the custody of the secretary. As Mr. Logan was one of the secretaries Mr. Gray refused and his appeal from the decision of the chair was voted under by a large majority. At this point of the proceedings Mr. Gray hastily left the church, saying that if it wanted the papers in question recourse would have to be made to the courts to secure them. A member of the conference, as Mr. Gray was leaving, started an old Methodist hymn which was taken up by the delegates.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.—According to previous notice in the Gazette, the Episcopal Theological Seminary near this city opened its 79th annual session on Wednesday of this week. All the members of the faculty were present. A large number of students are expected. Of these about 24 have now arrived, including fourteen new ones. About six more new students have sent in their names as coming, as the junior class will have 20 enroll, the largest number for some years past. So far as can be now estimated the whole number attending the Seminary this year will be forty-five. The new students so far are exceedingly well prepared and very few entrance examinations have been required. The full work of the session commences on Monday next. The opening service of the session was held on Thursday last at 9 a. m. with the celebration of Holy Communion and an address by Dr. Crawford, the dean. Shortly after the close of this service Dr. Crawford left for the Episcopal Convention at San Francisco, Cal., to which he was elected one of the clerical deputies at the council held last May in this city. He will be absent for one month during which time the work at the Seminary will be carried on by the other professors, including Rev. Berryman Green, of Christ Church, adjunct professor of the English Bible.

LEGS CRUSHED OFF BY TRAIN.—Mr. W. M. Baggett, a painter in the employ of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad in Richmond, and a native of this city, was run over by a shifting freight train in that city yesterday morning, and so badly crushed that he may die. Both legs had to be amputated, and his condition is very precarious. A telegram giving the facts was received in this city last night.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.—Take LAXATIVE BROMO-QUININE TABLETS. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box. 25c.

B. W. Parrell, Kintnersville, Pa., says he suffered 25 years with piles and could obtain no relief until Dr. W. H. Little Early Balm effected a permanent cure. Counterfeits are worthless. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

PERSONAL. Mrs. Henry Green has returned from Atlantic City and Pennsylvania where she spent the summer.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Anna May Liggett to Mr. George Leverett Stowell, Jr., of New York, Sept. 25 at the Church of the Incarnation, Washington, D. C. Miss Liggett is a daughter of Mrs. Caroline Stuart Liggett and granddaughter of Prof. Robert L. Brockett, formerly of Alexandria but more recently of Atlanta, Ga. Prof. Brockett is to attend the wedding and give Miss Liggett's hand in marriage. Mr. Stowell is a successful young business man of New York city.

Va., were guests of the family of the editor of The Free Press at "Mt. Parvo" on Wednesday evening to Saturday morning of last week, when these ladies returned to their respective homes.

Mr. and Mrs. David J. Howell and son and Miss Gibson, sister of Mrs. Howell, have returned to Alexandria. They expressed themselves as having had a delightful time. Mr. Howell put in a part of his time making some of the Shenandoah river for a contemplated electric power plant. He is very accomplished in his profession, and has been in charge of some very important works where engineers of real capacity were needed.

Mr. C. H. Welby, of England, was a passenger on the Johnston steamer Vedamore, which arrived at Baltimore yesterday from Liverpool. Mr. Welby will visit friends in this city, and then make a tour of the United States.

Jr. O. U. A. M.—Dr. Hunt, of the Baptist Church, will preach a special sermon to Alexandria Council, No. 34, Jr. O. U. A. M., and the members of the order in this city tomorrow evening. The choir of this church has, in view of the special sermon, arranged appropriate music for the occasion.

This is the eleventh anniversary of this council and its growth has been vigorous since its institution. From it have sprung two other councils of the order in this city. On next Tuesday evening the anniversary of the council will be celebrated by a musical and literary entertainment at the Opera House. Complimentary tickets have been issued for the occasion, which have been distributed by the members of the order.

Among those who will participate in the program will be the following well-known Washingtonians: Messrs. J. H. Catbelle, H. Brewer and H. B. White; Mrs. H. B. White, soprano, and Miss Adelaide Lyman, contralto. Mr. M. E. Kahn, also of Washington, the well-known humorist writer, will be present and assist in the entertainment. Mr. N. F. Featherston, of this city, will also take part and entertain the audience in his usual happy manner.

ANOTHER VIRGINIAN VICTIMIZED.—Walter Reed, of Wrenn, Charlotte county, went to Washington a day or two ago. He told the police yesterday that he was stopping, during his sojourn in Missouri avenue northwest. He said he was out walking yesterday, and while near the post-office met a well-appearing colored man who inquired whether he wanted work. Reed replied that he was seeking employment and followed the negro some distance. The latter suddenly turned and asked Reed if he could change a $20 bill. Reed had just that much money in his pocket, and handed the negro two fives and one ten dollar bill. The darky thanked the Virginian, and dodged down an alley leaving a sealed box of worthless paper in the hands of his victim.

BUSY FACTORIES.—Messrs. Ribbell & Sons are compelled to work their force at night in order to fill the many orders they have received recently.

The Osage Manufacturing Company, at the foot of Wolfe street, are running their brylites plant to its fullest capacity. They have about twenty men employed steadily.

BITTEN BY A DOG.—A dog belonging to Mr. Asbury Warren son of Mr. Langford on south Alfred street this morning bit the canine member of its teeth into the calf of the child's leg. He was taken to Mr. C. J. W. Summers' drug store, corner of Duke and Alfred streets, and Mr. Summers applied remedies used in such cases.

THE MARKET.—The usual Saturday activity was renewed in the market court this morning. Numbers of country people were on hand and about the usual number of buyers. There was a plentiful supply of everything, but prices of country produce showed a stiffening tendency.

Sid Darling, 1012 Howard street, Port Huron, Mich., writes: "I have tried many pills and laxatives but Dr. W. H. Little Early Balm are the best pills I have ever used." They never gripe. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

THE MAN WITH THE COFFIN.—A white man with a dilapidated coffin on his shoulder attracted the attention of a number of people, especially of children, as he passed through the streets Thursday evening, and considerable curiosity was aroused as to the meaning of the proceeding. During the summer three strange individuals—two men and one woman—were noticed on the streets. One of the men is blind, and the trio in other ways are the sympathy of those they meet. It seems that the mother of the men died some time ago in another city and the remains were brought here in a metallic coffin and were put in a vault. Later the services of a tinner were procured to unsolder it. A wooden receptacle was purchased and the remains put into it and the coffin afterwards replaced in the vault. It is alleged that the coffin is opened periodically by the men and prayers said over the remains, it being their belief that they can converse with the deceased.

It was imagined by the men that the coffin was not large enough for the body, and Thursday, after an angry colloquy with the sexton, one of them shouldered the coffin and took it to an undertaker who sold him another large enough for their purpose.

ALEXANDRIAN REPORTED SHOT.—An item in a Washington paper yesterday stated that a man named Eph Adams had been shot and seriously injured at Elston, Del., by a man who had become incensed at a pleasant remark made by Adams. The item gave rise to a report that Mr. Eph Adams, of this city, was the man shot, as he lives at present in Wilmington, Delaware. Members of Mr. Adams, family were interviewed this morning but they had heard nothing of the shooting. Had Mr. Adams of this city been the victim of the shooting they would doubtless have been notified by this time.

RELICS OF BY-GONE DAYS.—Mr. George Appich while engaged in removing a mantel at his hotel on King street, between Washington and Columbus, yesterday found a breastplate which in its antique appearance must have been in fashion in the days of Martha Washington. Portions of a copy of the Alexandria Gazette dated March 26, 1845, were also found. The names of Bell & Estwile, Andrew J. Fleming, James Green, Lambert & McKelzie, Stephen Shinn, Thomas Burns, George White, Casanova & Co., Wm. Fowle & Sons and others appear among the advertisers.

RUN OVER AND KILLED.—A man named Ernest Dow, employed as a brick burner at Brickhaven (Waterloo), in the county, was the victim of a fatal accident at that place yesterday evening between four and five o'clock. A north bound freight train on the Washington Southern Railway was going north at the time and Dow, attempted to board the train. In doing so he slipped and fell on the track and a number of cars passed over him. Both legs were cut off and he died about two hours later. The unfortunate man came from Wilmington, Del.

THE JAIL.—The committee and public property on general laws held another joint session last night when the matter of improvements to the city jail was again discussed, and Mr. Schenck appeared and submitted plans of improvements, etc. No action was taken and Mr. Smith, who appeared before the committee on Wednesday last, will appear before Council on Tuesday night next and explain his plans.

FORFEITED HIS COLLATERAL.—The only case on the docket of the Police Court this morning was that of John Ryan, who was charged with assaulting William Geary. He had been released on $5 collateral for his appearance this morning. He could not be found when the case was called and forfeited the $5.

JEWISH FESTIVAL.—The Day of Atonement, the most important of the Jewish holidays, will begin tomorrow evening and continue until Monday evening. At the synagogue in this city services will be held at 7 p. m. tomorrow, when R. V. Mr. Wise will deliver an appropriate sermon.

LEFT THE FREE METHODISTS.—Rev. Mr. Cameron, formerly pastor of the Free Methodist Church of this city, has severed his connection with the New York conference of that denomination and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church.

FIVER NOTES.—The schooner Sidney, owned by Captain Kenwick, of Charles county, Md., ran on a stake of a trap in Nasajome a few days ago and stove a hole in its bottom, causing it to sink. The schooner was loaded with wood and was bound to this port. The tugboat George W. Price, Captain A. J. Fair, went to the schooner's assistance this morning.
